Hollywood Music Workshop 2015

The Hollywood Music Workshop 2015 is accepting applications for this coming summer event in the charming resort town of Baden near Vienna/Austria!

This year's faculty from Hollywood will include renowned artists, such as

- Christopher Young (Ghost Rider, Hellraiser, Copycat, Jennifer 8),
- Conrad Pope (My Week With Marilyn, Tim's Vermeer),
- Nan Schwartz (Grammy Award winning composer and arranger),
- Thomas Chase Jones (Greystone Park, April Rain).

Students will have the opportunity to work and study under their guidance and benefit from the workshops' close and professional working environment. Furthermore, participants may create their own version of movie scenes in a live recording held in the style of a Hollywood Scoring Session. An 18-piece string orchestra will be provided and conducted by HMW director Dimitrie Leivici, one of Hollywood's top session violinists and international concert artist, and supervised by Christopher Young.

Secure your place and sign up by April 15, 2015 at www.hollywoodmusicworkshop.com in order to obtain the early sign up rate!

VIENNA BACKSTAGE STORY

Episode 1 – Stolen Bass Trumpet

In this new column, we present real life stories that happened during more than a decade of orchestral sample production of the Vienna Symphonic Library. Some of these incidents are not just amusing but also provide insights into the “daily madness” of producing virtual instruments at the highest technical and aesthetic level.
