Hollywood Music Workshop 2016

This year's Hollywood Music Workshop takes place from July 6 through August 11, 2016 in the charming resort town of Baden near Vienna/Austria.

Added for the first time are renowned and celebrated Hollywood composer Joe Kraemer ("Mission: Impossible – Rogue Nation", don't miss to watch his video interview here) for the film music composition class with recording session besides the returning "in house" lecturers Conrad Pope, Nan Schwartz (Orchestration) and Thomas Chase Jones (M.I.T. method). Seasoned composer, orchestrator and arranger Chris Walden will be featured in a three-day seminar on "Arranging for big bands and strings for pop music". Vocalist Lisbeth Scott will contribute with a seminar called "Using the voice in film music" as well as – also new to HMW 2016 – young Austro-American film composer Edwin Wendler, who will present a highly necessary "A film composer's survival guide". And to top it all off, internationally renowned sound engineer and mixer Dennis Sands will present his seminar on "Mixing for composers and musicians".

Equally exciting is the fact that for the first time the recording sessions (including an 18 piece string orchestra) as well as Dennis Sands' mixing seminar will take place in the new Synchron Stage Vienna, originally a historical recording facility that has been revitalized by the Vienna Symphonic Library during the last 2 years with great passion for detail. Watch out for more information on this breath-taking scoring stage with supreme acoustics, cutting-edge recording technology and proprietary software innovations, coming very soon!

Secure your place at the Hollywood Music Workshop and take advantage of financial savings by signing up on or before April 15, 2016! Details and registration at <http://hollywoodmusicworkshop.com>.
