VIENNA SYMPHONIC LIBRARY

"Lonely Hearts": Free Single Instruments and Special Prices

Vienna Symphonic Library's Limited Time Offer, February 1–28, 2015

Vienna, February 1, 2015 – With their "Lonely Hearts" promotion the Vienna Symphonic Library team announces a one-month limited time offer including all products that contain only one instrument, such as Vienna Imperial, Bösendorfer Imperial, Vienna Konzerthaus Organ as well as all other Single Instruments. Customers who purchase any two of these products during the month of February 2015 will receive one additional product for free. Four, six or eight purchased items will yield even more free products. What's more, the above-mentioned Collections of the Keyboards category are available at special prices during the promotional period.

81 Single Instruments Available

Single Instruments are a great way to expand an existing palette of virtual orchestral instruments step-by-step. The Full Library of a Single Instrument offers the complete set of samples and articulations as they appear on the award-winning Vienna Instruments Collections. What's more, customers will benefit from various upgrade discounts when completing their Single Instruments to a full Collection later.

Keyboards Collections at Special Prices

In addition to all Single Instruments (Standard Libraries and Full Libraries), this "Lonely Hearts" special offer includes three additional Keyboard Collections: Vienna Imperial, Bösendorfer Imperial, Vienna Konzerthaus Organ are available at special prices with savings of up to €100 during the promotional period. Users purchasing any two of these items between February 1 and February 28, 2015 will receive one additional product for free. Products of different categories (e.g., Keyboard Collections, Single Instruments Standard Libraries and Full Libraries) can be combined in one order. The more products a customer purchases, the more additional products he or she will receive for free: A purchase of four products results in two additional free products, while six ordered products yield three additional free products, and so on.
