Dear Vienna Newsletter Subscriber,

The glorious Big Bang Orchestra String Packs are here!

BIG BANG ORCHESTRA: Lyra & Musca

The exquisite string sections of the Synchron Stage Orchestra, playing in the exceptional acoustics of our very own scoring stage, create a lush and rich string sound that's now a cornerstone of the Big Bang Orchestra.

Lyra – High Strings offers the shimmering and well-balanced string sound of 14 first violins and 12 second violins playing in unison, and 8 violas playing an octave below. Their captivating performances are perfect for those soaring melodies and prominent themes.

Musca – Low Strings includes the ensembles of six cellos and four basses playing together in octaves. Their homogenous, balanced sound provides a well-rounded low end that works well as a foundation of your arrangements as well as in melodies.
