Synchron Brass

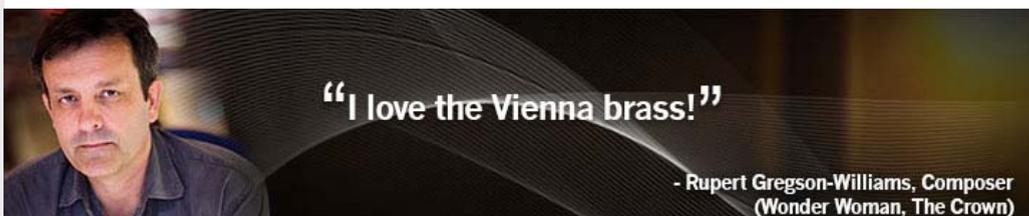

We are overwhelmed by the heaps of positive responses to our latest brass library and are therefore extending our introductory offer through August 15!

As an example, here's what Rupert Gregson-Williams (Wonder Woman, The Crown) kindly sent our way:

"I love the Vienna brass! It's fantastic to have the sound of the Synchron Stage – clear and easy to use alongside other libraries. The programming is meticulous, and thank you for giving us such varied line ups, especially with the horns. This will become a mainstay in my orchestral palette, and give me more reason to come back to Vienna to record, too!"
